THE STORY

Stylists on a budget love the Scandinavian-inspired Studio sofa for its high quality and a stylish, contemporary shape. Featuring sleek and sophisticated lines, the sofa and its modular cousin have a classic pared down shape. Solid beech tapered legs and the slim profile of the cushions make it ideal for urban loft or apartment living. It's comfy, too. The removable seat and back cushions can be plumped up and the spring suspension maintains excellent seating support year in and year out.

MATERIALS

Solid timber frame with timber composites. Loose foam and fibre blend back with a high density foam core seat. Steel spring suspension for consistent comfort and long term support.
